Dear Hospital Partners,

Hurricane Beryl is closing in on the Texas coast and will have an effect the Houston region. Hospital Services will be available to fill orders for blood products on emergency status only starting from midnight tonight through 10:00 am Monday morning. Monday's blood release will likely be later in the afternoon, but we have blood in inventory for emergency orders. Be aware that for the safety of our staff, based on weather conditions and wind speed, blood deliveries may be delayed.

Sincerely,
